The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XIXth Year.] THURSDAY, June 23, 1763. [N°. 946.]

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

WHITEHALL, April 16, 1763.

ON Thurſday Night, Lieutenant Colonel Scott arrived with the following Letter to the Earl of Egremont from Brigadier-General Draper, who alſo arrived himſelf about the ſame time.

My Lord, Manilla, November 2, 1762.

I DO myſelf the honour of ſending Lieut. Col. Scott, late Adjutant-General, to inform your Lordſhip of the ſucceſs of his Majeſty's arms in the conqueſt of Manilla, the ſurrender of the port of Cavite, and the ceſſion of the Philippine Iſlands.

On the 6th of October we took the capital by ſtorm after 12 days operation, which are detailed in my journal. Our loſs upon this occaſion would have been but trifling, but for the death of Major Moore, a valiant good officer; and it is with particular ſatisfaction I can aſſure your Lordſhip, that the firm bravery and perſeverance of the troops could only be equalled by their humanity after victory. Out of reſpect and deference to Admiral Corniſh, we waited till he came on ſhore, and being deſirous to ſave ſo fine a city from deſtruction, we jointly dictated the annexed conditions to the Governor General (the Archbiſhop) and the chief Magiſtrates, who moſt readily embraced them.

Conſidering their critical ſituation, and vaſt opulence, the terms were as reaſonable for them as beneficial to us. We allow the India Company a third part of the ranſom, the whole of which amounts to a million ſterling; and, according to my inſtructions, I have this day delivered up Manilla, one of the richeſt cities and iſlands in this part of the world, with the port of Cavite, to Dawſon Drake, Eſq; and the other Gentlemen appointed to receive them on behalf of the Company, with all the artillery, ammunition, and warlike ſtores found therein, agreeable to the incloſed inventories.

I have appointed Major Fell of the 79th regiment to be Commandant of the garriſon, which muſt conſiſt of all the troops brought from Madraſs, as the great extent of the place, its very numerous inhabitants, an unſettled country, with the importance of the Cavite, demand at leaſt this force for an effectual ſecurity.

The ſeaſon of the year, and condition of the ſquadron, obliged us to defer the taking poſſeſſion of the ſubordinate places ceded to the crown, until the ſhips have had a ſufficient repair; and I have the pleaſure to acquaint your Lordſhip, that the large quantity of naval ſtores taken in the royal magazines at Cavite, ſupply moſt excellent materials for this purpoſe, in which the Admiral is indefatigable, whoſe zeal for his Majeſty's ſervice, great cordiality, and conſtant attention to us during the whole courſe of the expedition, and fatiguing progreſs of the ſiege, are beyond all praiſe. The other officers of the fleet exerted themſelves to the utmoſt upon every occaſion. As a ſmall acknowlegement of our many obligations to Mr. Kamperfeldt, the Admiral's Captain, I begged his acceptance of the Government of the Citadel and Fort of Cavite, till it was given up to the Company; his prudent and excellent regulations there, were of infinite utility to the public ſervice.

The Captains Collins, Pitchford, and George Ourry, who commanded the battalion of ſeamen, behaved with great ſpirit and conduct, and Captain Jocelyn, who was intruſted with the care of the diſembarkment, gave us all the aſſiſtance that could be wiſhed or expected from a diligent good officer. The marine officers and corps were of great ſervice, and the ſeamen aſtoniſhed us with moſt extraordinary proofs of activity and valour, particularly thoſe who aſſiſted at our batteries.

The reduction of Manilla has been ſo much owing to the conſummate ſkill and bravery of Colonel Monſon, that I fear my faint repreſentations cannot do juſtice to his merits; and I moſt humbly beg leave, through your Lordſhip, to recommend him to his Majeſty, together with the following officers, viz. Lieutenant Colonel Scott, Major Barker, who commanded our artillery; Captain Fletcher, Major of Brigade; the Engineers, Captains Stevenſon and Cotſford, and Enſign Barnard; the Captains Moore and Pemble, Aids-de-camp, who have all acted in their ſeveral departments with extraordinary merit, and greatly facilitated my good fortune. Both the Royal and the Company's artillery, with their other troops, behaved very well. In the laſt place, may I preſume to point out the ſervices of the 79th regiment, which, from the good conduct of their former and preſent Field-Officers, has the peculiar merit of having firſt ſtopped the progreſs of the French in India, and not a little contributed to the happy turn and deciſion of that war under Col. Coote, and has ſince extended the glory of his Majeſty's arms to the utmoſt verge of Aſia. Twenty-three officers, with upwards of 800 men, have fallen in the cauſe of their country, ſince the regiment left England. Numbers of the ſurvivors are wounded. Your Lordſhip's goodneſs encourages me to mention them as objects of compaſſion and protection. Capt. Fletcher has ſome colours to lay at his Majeſty's feet.

I have the honour to be, &c.

WILLIAM DRAPER,
Brigadier-General, and Commander in Chief.

LONDON, March 31.

And to ſuch as ſettle on any other Parts 3 l. Bounty, and a Houſe and Land as above. And to 500 Soldiers who ſhall ſettle as Artificers, Manufacturers, or Labourers, Dwelling-Houſes and three Acres of Land, for raiſing Corn, Hay, Pot-Herbs, &c. to maintain his Family and feed a Cow; and 20 s. Sterling will be given for the firſt three Years, after which they are to pay 5 s. per Acre per Ann. Till the Houſes can be built, the 500 Soldiers will be employed in the public Works now carrying on by the above Commiſſioners.

When the Gentlemen who were ſent over to France from the Bank and South Sea Houſe, received a poſitive Aſſurance from the Duke of Bedford, that Rice would be delivered up, a Meſſenger was diſpatched to Cambray with an Order that he ſhould be inſtantly confined till every Thing had paſſed in Form for his being delivered up. Mr. Rice, before this, was ſuffered to walk about the Town, in the Care of a Keeper, and had flattered himſelf not a little with the Hopes of being denied to the Solicitation of the Britiſh Court; this made the Order for his Confinement doubly dreadful, and the next Day when the proper Perſons appeared to bring him over from Cambray, he fainted in the Priſon, and it was a full Half Hour before they could recover him.

When he came a little to himſelf, he fell upon his Knees, and begged in the moſt earneſt Manner, he might not be handcuffed, which was agreed to. The Stay at Cambray, after his being delivered up, was not above three Hours. He was carried with all poſſible Expedition to the Port where the Veſſel lay, appointed to bring him over, and upon his Arrival in England travelled in a Poſt-Chaiſe with his Majeſty's Meſſenger, preceded in another by the two Gentlemen from the South-Sea Company and the Bank. Wherever they put up he ſat at Table without any Appearance of Reſtraint, and it would have been difficult to know he was a Priſoner, had it not been for the great Dejection in which he appeared abſorbed. He eat and drank but very little. The Curioſity of the Populace was ſo very great wherever he ſtopped, that the People climbed in at the Windows of the Houſe to get a View of him. As ſoon as he approached Town, a Meſſenger was diſpatched to my Lord Mayor informing him the Hour he ſhould arrive, and requeſting a Couple of Hackney Coaches might be ſent, for the greater Privacy of carrying him to the Manſion-Houſe. The Coaches were accordingly ſent, but the Report of his Arrival inſtantly tranſpiring, Crowds immediately gathered round the Manſion-Houſe, and waited till he was brought before the Lord Mayor.

April 5. A few Days ſince one of the Men belonging to the Active which took the Hermione, who had for ſome Time paſt fixed his Quarters at a Public-Houſe at Portſmouth, came to Town on Monday laſt, accompanied by his Landlord in Search of his Wife, from whom he had been abſent about five Years; and after ſome Enquiry, found ſhe had been married to another Man, the preceding Thurſday; the Tar pleaded his prior Right, and inſiſted on having his Wife back again, with which the new Huſband readily agreed. The Sailor putting his Hand into his Pocket ſaid, Here Friend, accept of a Couple of Guineas, for the SERVICE you have done my WIFE; and afterwards ſet out with her and his Landlord, in a Landau and Four for Portſmouth.

Extract of a Letter from Rome, March 9.

Yeſterday I was informed that the King of Pruſſia had ſent for the Rector of the Jeſuits at Breſlau, to whom he ſpoke in theſe ſoft Terms:

"Fathers, the King of Portugal hath driven you out of his "Kingdoms; France hath Exterminated you; this, doubt"leſs, was done for powerful Reaſons. For my Part, I have "but very few Words to ſay to You; Leave my Dominions "as ſoon as poſſible [illegible] carry nothing away with you "otherwiſe I will Hang you up as Traitors." [illegible] this [illegible] Speech, which was delivered in High German, and has been [illegible] in Italian. The Court has a Copy of it as [illegible] ſpoken.

We are credibly informed, that a noble Earl, who has juſt reſigned a great Office, did not receive a fourth Part of the Salary annexed to it, giving up the Reſt for the public Service.

We are threatened by the White-Boys, or Levellers, in the ſame Manner we were laſt Year. I wiſh his Excellency had cauſed a Groſs or two of them to be hanged when he was here, probably in that Caſe we ſhould not now have been in the Situation we are in; 14,000 of them are in Arms in one County in the Province of Munſter, and all ſworn to be true to the Cauſe, as it appeared in Evidence upon the Trial of one of them laſt Week, who has been ſince exalted according to his Merit. There is one of their Leaders in Clonmell Goal who has offered 20,000 l. Bail, which the Judge refuſed: He, with ſeveral others now in Confinement, are to be tried ſoon at a ſpecial Aſſize to be held for that Purpoſe. Informations have been lodged againſt ſeveral Gentlemen of Fortune, not yet taken, for being concerned with them; I hope they will all meet with their Deſerts. The Light Horſe are in Purſuit of them every Night, and often wing them in their Flight.

April 18. We hear his Grace the Duke of Bedford will reſign the Office of Lord Privy Seal, and that his Grace does not accept of any other Place, as he is ſoon going to the South of France for the Recovery of the Dutcheſs's Health.

We hear that Lord Gower will be made Lord Privy-Seal, in the Room of his Grace the Duke of Bedford.

And that Lord Deſpenſer will be made Maſter of the Great Wardrobe, in the Room of Lord Gower.

We hear Application hath been made to the Sheriffs, to indulge Mr. Rice to go in a Coach to the Place of Execution, which was refuſed.

BOSTON, May 30.

The alternate Rains and warm influence of the Sun gives a Proſpect of a plentiful Year; ſome Fields of Rye in a neighbouring Town having lately been meaſured, the Stalks thereof are already from 4 or 5 Feet in Height.—But what is very remarkable at this Seaſon, in a Number of Towns to the Weſtward they had a Storm of Snow on Friday the 20th Inſt. which lay on the Ground two or three Inches deep till an Hour after Sun riſe next Morning.

We hear from Brookfield, that on the 9th Inſt. a little Son of Mr. Benjamin Adams of this Place, of about 5 Years old, as he was playing with a few Beans, which were prepared to plant, put one into his Mouth and involuntarily ſwallowed it down his Aſpera-Arteria (or Wind-Pipe.) All humane Aid was induſtriouſly afforded, but in vain; for in 48 Hours the Child expired in great Diſtreſs, and in all the Vigour and Floridity of Youth, amidſt the Tears of affectionate Parents and a weeping Family. By the Conſent of the Parents, and at the Deſire of the Phyſicians preſent, the Thorax of the Child was dilated and the Bean was found conſiderably extended, about Half an Inch above the Diviſion of the Aſpera-Arteria, into the two Branches which lead to each Lobe of the Lungs. It is remarkable, that while the Bean ſtuck in the Entrance the Child was in the utmoſt Diſtreſs; but after it had paſſed down to the Place where it was found, he had Eaſe, breathed freely without much Coughing, till a few Hours of his Death.

NEW-HAVEN (in Connecticut) May 28.

Laſt Tueſday two uncommon Animals were ſeen in Milford, which being purſued, betook themſelves to the Water, and were followed by a Number of People in a ſmall Veſſel, and were taken; the He One was ſtrangled in the Water by a Rope's being made too faſt about his Neck. The She One is now alive, is big with Young, and is about 14 Hands and a Half high.—They are of much the ſame Colour of a Deer, and are extremely nimble; they have a Neck, about the Length of a common Horſe's and ſhort Mane, and have little ſhort Knobs of Horns; the He One was about 16 and ½ Hands high; and thoſe that eat of his Fleſh ſay, it taſted a good deal like Veniſon.

They were tho't to have been Elks, when they were firſt taken:—But they don't at all anſwer the Deſcription we have had of thoſe Animals, which are ſaid to be about the Size of a Mule, and to have a large Horn.

PHILADELPHIA, June 16.

Extract of a Letter from Fort Pitt, June 2, 1763.

"Thurſday laſt, juſt oppoſite the Fort, at Duſk, arrived a Number of Delaware Indians, with 15 Horſe Load of Skins and Furs. Very early next Morning they came over the River, and drank them all off, not ſeeming to care much what they took for them. Their Indifference, and uncommon Diſpatch, in Trading, gave us ſome Jealouſies how they came by them. Juſt before they ſet off, I was ſtanding with Mr. Alexander M'Kee, on the Bank of the River, when one of them came up and told him to go away, and that he muſt not ſtay more than four Days; theſe, with ſome other ſuſpicions Words, made us imagine they intended ſome Miſchief, and immediately after they told Mr. M'Kee this, they ſet off.—The next Morning we found, that all the Indians that lay up the River, a few Miles above us, and planted Corn, left their Towns that very Night, and took every Thing with them, which convinced us that they either intended, or knew of ſome Miſchief intended us.—Sunday Morning ſome People, belonging to Colonel Clapham, arrived at the Fort, and informed us that the Colonel, and four of his People were killed by the Wolf, and ſome other Delawares; and ſince the Colonel was brought down and buried here, who was tomahawked and ſcalped; two Women were treated in ſuch a Manner, that it would be indecent to mention it. Sunday Night the Enemy killed two of the Soldiers at the Saw Mill, and on Thurſday burnt it.—Monday, a Man hired with Aliſon and Company, came to a Party ſent down to bury the Dead, and informed, that he was in Company with Alexander M'Clure, driving 25 Horſe Load of Skins and Furs, belonging to ſaid Company, Thomas Calhoon and Brother, and ſeveral others, amounting in all to fourteen, who were fired upon by a Party of Indians, as they were croſſing Beaver Creek, and ſeveral killed.—Calhoon, and two of his Men, have arrived ſince, but no Account of the reſt.—The whole Garriſon have been very alert in putting every Thing in the beſt Order ſince the firſt Alarm.—We have deſtroyed the Upper and Lower Towns, laying them level with the Ground; and by To-morrow Night we ſhall be in a good Poſture of Defence.—Every Morning, an Hour before Day, the whole Garriſon are at their Alarm Poſts.—Ten Days ago, at Beaver Creek, they killed one Patrick Dunn, and a Man of Major Smallman's; alſo two other Men.—Capt. Callender's People are all killed, and the Goods taken.—There is no Account of Mr. Welſh, or Capt. Prentice, but it is feared they are likewiſe killed.—Mr. Crawford is made Priſoner, and his People all murdered.—Our ſmall Poſts, I am afraid are gone.—Detroit was attacked four Days without Intermiſſion.—The French ſent the Indians two Belts, and the Engliſh three, to deſiſt, but they determined to continue the Attack, and were fighting when the Indian, who brought this Account to the Delawares, came away.—We ſent two Men with an Expreſs to Venango in the Night, but before they got a Mile on their Journey, were fired upon, and returned, one of them wounded.

From Fort Bedford we have the following Extracts,

June 5, 1763. "As the News current muſt have reached you, with various Circumſtances, e'er now, the following is the moſt authentic that I can as yet depend on, viz. That Col. Clapham, one M'Cormick, two Women, and a Child, were murdered on Saturday, the 28th ult.—That a few Days after two Royal Americans were killed and ſcalped, within a Mile of Fort Pitt.—And that on Tueſday laſt one Smith was attacked by an Indian, without Arms, at Beaver Creek, who endeavoured to put him under Water; but Smith proving too ſtrong for him, put the Indian under Water, brought off a Piece of his Ear, and left him."

"At this Garriſon Capt. Ourry is very alert, in ſtrengthening the Place, and putting in Order every the leaſt Article that may be neceſſary.—The Fort is tenable, and the Garriſon ſtrong, a Number of People having come in from the Country.—We have a numerous Militia, who are under Arms almoſt continually.—Regular Piquets, Town Guards, Fort Guards, Centinels, &c. are obſerved.—Thirteen brave Men, well painted, go out a ſcouting To-morrow."

June 6. "After ſealing the above, I opened it this Morning, to inform you, that the thirteen brave Fellows, above mentioned, painted like Indians, have ſet off from our Parade, in Queſt of the Savages, to the great Satisfaction of the Commander, and the whole Garriſon.—Juſt as I am writing, News is brought in of Indians being ſeen within two Miles of the Garriſon, when immediately the Piquet, conſiſting of the Militia, ſprung after them on a full Gallop."

June 7. "We have juſt now received, by the Way of Redſtone Creek, a Confirmation of the Garriſon of St. Duſky being cut off; and that the Officers and Traders are made Priſoners."

From Fort Ligonier, June 4.

"On Thurſday laſt, about ſeven or eight Indians fired at this Garriſon, and killed ſome Horſes, without doing any other Damage.—Th were intimidated by Lieutenant Blane, and Garriſon, who gave them three Cheers, and th went off.—Some People are come into Ligo from Fort Pitt, in whoſe Company were five M who ſet out with them, but had not come in o 4th Inſtant, tho' the others arrived on the Firſt.

There are likewiſe ſeveral Letters in Town fro Fort Auguſta, by which there is Reaſon to f an Attack on that Place by the Indians.

WHEREAS the Subſcriber hath lately begun to build a new Furnace for making Pig-Iron at the upper End of Shenandoe Falls, on Patowmack River Side, to be worked by a Spring, commonly called Elk Branch, making into the ſaid River, on the Virginia Side, which ſaid Work he expects to get in Blaſt by the middle of July next; and it being neceſſary to have chief Part of the Pig-Iron there manufactured into Bars, with the Caſting of Pots, Stoves, Ovens, &c. in order to ſave the Expence of Land Carriage, ſhould there be a greater Quantity made than can be diſpoſed of in the back Parts of the Country: And as he hath already been at a great Expence in purchaſing Lands, Ore, &c. on both Sides of the ſaid River Patowmack, on the promiſing Proſpect of a convenient Place for a Set of Forges, Mills, &c. which happens at the Beginning of the ſaid Falls, and oppoſite the ſaid Furnace; but ſome Perſons being apprehenſive that the Navigation of the ſaid River would be prejudiced ſhould thoſe Forges, &c. be built at the Place aforeſaid, he doth hereby give this public Notice, that it is his requeſt and deſire that two or three Gentlemen, acquainted with Affairs of that Nature, ſhould come and view the ſaid Falls, particularly the Place where the Works are to be erected, and he makes not the leaſt Doubt but they will be immediately convinced that what he Deſigns to do at the before-mentioned Place will be ſo far from prejudicing the Navigation, that it will greatly contribute to aſſiſt it, as at preſent the Water being confined within narrow Limits, and having a conſiderable Fall, with a rocky uneven Bottom, it is rendered equally impaſſable either in dry Summers or Freſhes. The Subſcriber therefore hopes in a little Time to ſatisfy the Perſons whom it may concern that he has not the leaſt View or Intention to prejudice the paſſing of Craft up and down the ſaid River, ſhould it be thought practicable, on the raiſing a Sum of Money to open the ſame from the Great Falls to Will's Creek; but would gladly aſſiſt in every thing relative thereto, as ſoon as the ſame ſhall be taken into Conſideration.

He hereby alſo informs the Public that as there are many convenient Places for erecting of Iron Works, Merchant Mills, and Saw Mills, belonging to Gentlemen unacquainted with the Nature of ſuch Works, the Situation ſuitable as to Water, Wood and Ore, as well as in the Expence attending ſuch Buildings: For the better Encouragement of thoſe Improvements and more Satisfaction to Gentlemen that have ſuch Conveniencies, the Subſcriber will, at any Time when deſired, wait upon any Perſon that would erect all, or any of theſe Works, being well acquainted in every Branch of the ſame; and would alſo give a particular Eſtimate of the Expences in Building, and likewiſe the Profits when carried on with either Furnace, Forge, Merchant Mill, or Saw Mill, for a reaſonable Conſideration; and would undertake the whole Building at his own Expence, if they ſhould chooſe, rather than do it themſelves; being well acquainted with the beſt of Workmen, and long Experience in thoſe particular Branches of Buſineſs, with the building of ſtrong Dams, and ſtopping any Stream of Water whatever, which he will warrant to ſtand good at a certain Price as may be agreed on: Likewiſe in the blowing of Stone above or under Water, a Specimen of which may be ſeen at the Falls of Occoquan, in Prince-William County, where all thoſe Works, of every Kind, are well completed, by
